

FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF COLLABORATION

PRINCIPLES	DEFINITION (EXAMPLE)
Focus on achieving business results. manage complex trade-offs.	Collaboration is not a business end in itself. It is a means to an end. And that end is better business results. Collaboration should focus on where it can have the biggest impact on achieving business results. There has to be a benefit in it for all parties involved in collaboration.
Leadership at all levels align authority, information and decision making.	Collaborative leadership requires additional skills wherever you are within the business.
Promote behaviours that support collaboration. Promote high standards for discussion, dialogue and information sharing.
Intentional co-creation exploit the rhythm of divergence and convergence.
Design flexible organisations that promote the required collaboration.
Align support systems to promote ownership.
Take responsibility for a sustainable future.
Collaboration isn't necessarily forever.

© TEAL Consulting Limited